

Identify the Season

Look at the pictures and select which season is being shown. Then, select the correct answer to finish the description of each season.

March April May

Season:

In this season, the weather starts to get . Many trees begin to leaves and some may blossom.

June July August

Season:

In this season, the weather gets . Trees have leaves. There are lots of flowers, bees and butterflies around. The days are found in this season.

September October November

Season:

In this season, the weather begins to get . The leaves falling off many trees.

December January February

Season:

In this season, the weather is much . It sometimes snows. Many trees have bare branches as their have fallen off. The days of the year are found in this season.

Daylight

Daylight hours each month:

Month	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug
Daylight hours	13	11	9	8	8	10	12	14	15	16	16	14

Look at the table above and then select the missing words to finish the sentences below:

Daylight is when it is outside. The amount of daylight changes with each .

The months with the greatest number of hours of daylight are and . These months are in .

The months with the least number of hours of daylight are and . These months are in .