*Literacy activities will all be explained on my daily videos at the 'World Book Week' section of the website. There are further activities for you to join in with below...

World Book Week.

Dreamer by Brian Moses & Bee Willey

Literacy: Follow the instructions given in each day's video*. For Tuesday's lesson, have a look at this video clip as well: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KNPpINSrArI>

Computing: You will be using the computer for research to support your literacy work this week.

Geography: When writing your report about the sea turtle, remember to research the areas of the world where turtles are found. Make a note of the seas and oceans where they are located. Draw or print out a map of the distribution of sea turtles to accompany your report.

Art: Sketch a sea turtle: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jkI2vNOycSg>

PE: Joe Wicks every day.

French: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nuwbPDoQT7Q>

Science: Choose one animal from the story and research its taxonomy. Note its domain, kingdom, phylum, class, order, family, genus and species.

Music: Watch the 2 videos here to learn about and hear a piece of music written by Hans Zimmer, inspired by our planet.
